Frozen food industry has been growing day by day with the change of People’s personal life style & living standard. But they trying their best to export fully managed by own way. Bangladesh is the densely populated country with the growing agriculture and fisheries industry. So, it is huge opportunity to export a frozen food that made by fish or agriculture-based ingredients. Like Europe or other developed areas, the frozen food’s demand increasing incredibly because nowadays people have not enough time to cook and eat their meal, so frozen food is they key solution to cook meal within a short period of time. But, with the incredible demand frozen food in Bangladesh, the competitors become increasing day by day. Our understanding is that the industry is growing 15-16% yearly. There are other players in the industry obviously. Many of them have a comprehensive range of SKUs as well. But there was no direct market leader at that time. We took it is as an opportunity to be a category leader. The way coca cola means soft drinks and honda means motorcycle etc. There was an opportunity for a brand to come and be synonymous with frozen food. That’s what we’ve tried to do. (Chaudhury, 2019).

Chapter Three: Analysis and Findings

In this part I discussed about the market of Kazi Farms Kitchen on the other hand I discussed about the core marketing strategies such as Marketing Mix, Segmentation, Targeting & Positioning.

3.0.1 Market

A market is a place where two people are gathering to exchange of goods and services. The parties involved are usually buyers and sellers. The market may be physical like a retail outlet, where people meet face-to-face, or virtual like an online market, where there is no direct physical contact between buyers and sellers.

!Flour Based Products

Kazi Farms Kitchen is both physical and non-physical market where people buy their products from super stores and Franchise outlets. The continuously targeting the job holder person as well as young people who don’t have to cook their own meal. Kazi Farms Kitchen communicate their customers both online and offline. They organize several campaigns during special events and also give discount during Ramadan season and Kazi Farms Kitchen always committed to give healthy and fresh foods to their customers.

3.0.2 Segmentation

Market segmentation is the process of dividing up mass markets into groups with similar needs and wants. The purpose of market segmentation is that in order to achieve competitive advantage and excellent performance as we as more profit than others, firms should:
(1) To identify the segments of industry and customers’ needs and wants,

(2) target specific segments of those needs wants and

(3) develop accurate ‘marketing mixes’ for each targeted market segment.

From an economic perspective, segmentation is made on the forecasting that heterogeneity in demand allows for distinct demand functions.

There are 4 different types of market segmentation and all of them different in their implementation in the real scenario. These are discussed below:

Demographic segmentation

Demographic segmentation is referred as a simplest market segmentation method based on some specific variables such as age, gender, income etc. Demographic functions like age, sex, gender, religion, and educational qualification, play an important role in marketing research. Kazi Farms Kitchen follow some functions in this segmentation. The following functions are as follows:

- Age: 15-60
- Gender: Male & Female
- Occupation: Job Holder & Businessman
- Material Status: Both Single and married
- Income: 30,000 to 50,000
- These functions have been followed by Kazi Farms Kitchen.

Psychographic segmentation

Psychographic segmentation, which is sometimes referred as psychometric or lifestyle segmentation, is measured by identifying the activities, interests, and opinions of customers and consumers. It refers how people spend their leisure, and which external influences they are most responsive. Psychographics is a very popular that used on the basis for segmentation, because it enables marketers to identify accurate defined market segments and better understand consumer motivations for product or brand choice.

Kazi Farms Kitchen not directly follow this segment but indirectly some functions they have been followed. Example:
Lifestyle and interest: Lifestyle mean how people spend their time. Kazi Farms Kitchen segment this section such as people who have no time to prepare their meals but interest to eat some healthy foods, Kazi Farms Kitchen segment those people.

Geographic segmentation
Geographic segmentation divides markets according to geographic criteria. In practice, markets can be segmented as broadly as continents and as narrowly as neighborhoods or postal codes.

Though Kazi Farms Kitchen is not fully export based company, so they just follow the Bangladeshi region as their segmentation.

Behavioral segmentation
This type of market segmentation divides the population on the basis of their behavior, usage and decision-making patterns. For example – young women’s will always use Sandelina Sandal soap as a soap, whereas sports enthusiast will use Lifebuoy.

Kazi Farms Kitchen don’t follow this segmentation fully. They just follow:

- Purchase/usage occasion

  Purchase or usage occasion segmentation concentrate on occasions when consumers might purchase or consume a product. This approach customer-level and occasion-level segmentation models and provides an understanding of the individual consumers’ needs, behavior and value under different occasions of usage and time.

  Kazi Farms partially segment their product in different occasions like Eid Ul Fitr and Azha and government weekend.

- Usage Rate/Purchase Frequency: (Light users, heavy users, moderate users)

  Kazi Farms Kitchen also segment this area like which types of users (customers) buy their products. From this segment they can identify the users (Usage rate) and formulate their marketing strategies based on users.
1) Loyalty Status: (Loyal, switcher, non-loyal, lapsed)
Kazi Farms Kitchen segment their loyal customers based on the customer's purchase volume. So that they can hold their customers and make them regular customers so that they can increase word of mouth about their product.

2) Buyer Readiness: (Unaware, aware, intention to buy)
Kazi Farms Kitchen also segment which customers are ready to buy their product and also check which factors influence customers to purchase their products also.

3.02 Targeting

Targeting referred a market that is segmented by using age, gender, income, education, lifecycle, social status, social class and many more. After identifying segmentation from few segments are selected to reach target customers. This process of identifying then evaluating and selecting market segments is known as “Market Targeting”.

The target market typically consists of consumers who exhibit similar characteristics (such as age, location, income or lifestyle) and are considered most likely to buy a business's market offerings or are likely to be the most profitable segments for the business to service.

The following segments are following by Kazi farms Kitchen:

- Single family.
- People live in the hostel.
- Newly married group.

The marketing mix is also called the 4Ps and the 7Ps and sometimes 9Ps. The 4Ps such as price, place, product and promotion. The services of marketing mix is also called the 7Ps and includes the addition of process, people and physical.

"The marketing mix is the set of controllable tactical marketing tools – product, price, place, and promotion – that the firm blends to produce the response it wants in the target market."

[Kotler and Armstrong (2010)]"
Product

Product means the goods-and-services of the company produce to the target market. For many a product is simply the tangible, physical item that we buy or sell. It is also a very useful component of a marketing strategy as it refers our firm’s profit and survival. Adjusting the price of the product has a big change on the entire marketing strategy as well as greatly affecting the sales and demand of the product in the particular product line.

Kazi Farms Kitchen are following both costs based and sometime value-based pricing. They mainly set their price-based on competitors, raw materials cost and production cost.

Place

‘’Place includes company activities that make the product available to target consumers’’. Kotler and Armstrong (2010).

Placement or distribution is a very crucial part of the product mix definition. We have to position and distribute the product in a place that is accessible to potential customers and consumers. The product should be available from where we target consumer finds it easiest to shop.

Companies investing huge in this section to ensure the smooth distribution service and trying earn more ROI.
