Than they can maintain these. Their distribution channels will be updated that’s the acceptable from the customers that they are agree to this.

Threats
A brand will have competitors it’s very simple. But from the succession field Aarong can move from others. And high pricing rate can be threat for Aarong but they are always keep all types of products in their showroom which is not compare with the best of Aarong.

Major Findings of the study:
In the project study, which I understand about the Human Resources Management in Aarong Brand. With my academic knowledge and the realities of the organized functions of HR departments two things are not same. When I was studied with books after the analysis of HR functions it can be changed.
Now, I will try to highlight what types of findings of this study. These are-

Findings in Training and Development
As a well training system of the organization, it is the only most thing it is obvious an essential for the company. Through the training system an organization thinking work condition will be more effective than the present work conditions.

The training system involves for improving the knowledge of an employee improvement. This is not only the training system it is a guideline and work as well as an instructor. In organization work time any situation training can be needed. It can be short term or long term.

But in Aarong, their training section is not efficient. Their training section is small. So, it can be the major problem for the Aarong. Every level of worker is not trained for the particular work. Only store helper, maintenance and sales associate trained about their job. So, in this here I think every level of workers should have trained in the organization for development.

Findings in Competency Gap in Aarong
Competency gap do mean that what an organizations upcoming goal. What will be the trend for the future key skills which will be inputted in employees works activities etc. A competency Gap measured between the two things. One is current competency gap and another is required competency gap.

Competency gap in employees of Aarong should noticeable and sensible. Within the employees what their need and appropriate or what type of the condition of the work. These all have to care in cherish with the employees. Because of the gap of competency in the organization it increases falling rate for doing work and as well as the development.
Findings in Recruitment System in Aarong
Aarong is off course updated familiar brand in Bangladesh. They are always fast to published their branding in their personal website. They are always updated to collect review from the customers and others department of Aarong.

But in some cases, Aarong is not a good judgement for the people who wanted to recruit in Aarong. Aarong should introduce with the online application system who wanted to apply in Aarong.

The another problem for the applicants who are located outside in Dhaka for giving exam to come. If Aarong decide to take exam through the online, in claim of the applicants they are so much benefited.

Findings in Compensation system
Compensation system does measure how much the organization will profitable. Compensation means not loss for organization. A standard compensation system helps to the organization for gaining successful.

In a study of compensation, this is mixed with the total types of payoff in the organization. It includes in salary of the employees, benefits of the employees, bonuses, others facilities, vacation facilities, rewards and etc.

In Aarong, employees are not satisfied on the compensation package. Employees are always pillar for the organization. Employees also as well as main resources in the organization. So, the compensation package in Aarong should acceptable. There has lack of benefits other facilities which is not sufficient for the employees.

Findings in Turnover rate
In the Aarong, turnover rate of employee is high. And the reason of the turnover is low salary management. Which salary structure employees are not happy for this. That’s why employee wants to leave from this place. Salary structure should efficient and helpful for the employees. Otherwise, turnover rate will increase. Which is not good for Aarong.
Recommendation
I think, this report has some recommendation about Aarong Brand. I tried to describe below-

- In this here, Aarong has not enough planning for succession planning. Which is help to the organization for moving forward. Through the succession planning replacement of the employer how much it will be strong and fit for the organization. so, I think Aarong has to very careful and has to take decision about the succession plan for Aarong.

- In recruitment exam of Aarong, so many peoples who are living in outside of Dhaka. They are wanted to exam in Aarong. Most of the time they have not possible to attend in this exam. So, Aarong should arrange the exam for recruiting employees through the online exam. It will be more benefit and helpful for the people.

- Campus recruitment can be one of the recommendation for Aarong. Because it will help to the Aarong for developing.

- Aarong should have increases more digital measures. Which through Aarong easily gain updated. And as well as it will help for the employees.

- Aarong should have increased more training development. Lots of training practices will be more essential for the organization. Employees will be more experienced. Guidance and performance appraisal should be more systematic.

- Human Resources Development should try be creative and strong in the work. Because of the analysis of the Human Resources Development setting and planning work full means organization activities will be more positive.

I just try to share my opinion about the Aarong. it is totally my suggestion about the Aarong. Since, I don’t get chance to do work in Aarong. I worked only on project report on Aarong. So, I think these can be recommendation for Aarong.
Conclusion
After making the report on Aarong, I can learn about Aarong. Their office activities curriculum, their Human Resources Planning systems, other activities which are related on the resources with the Aarong. Their products, their services and lots of things are main point and view of the Aarong. I try to very essential topic is inputted in this report. In the HR organization how to handle to the office and their activities, I can learn about this. Although I cannot get opportunity for doing job in the Aarong. But, from the analytical part of the Aarong, with my academicals knowledge lots of thing I can relate with these. At last, I want to describe that Aarong is of course a big brand of Bangladesh. There has lots of sectors in workplace, and some wrongs can be in here but if Aarong can find out and can corrects their mistake, it will be not as a big for Aarong.
