Chapter 1
Introduction
1.1 Introduction

The key activity of Bank is to give financial support as a government-licensed organization and numerous commercial activities were allowed over time.

The main purpose of bank is to provide loans to export and import companies as well as to influence politics and economics for decades. In order to buy inventory and recollect funds with interest, banks give financial support for making corporate industries. For decades, all banking industries main purpose is to deal with businesses except the consumers.

Banks today are remain in great pressure to perform towards accomplishing the objectives of their shareholders, teams, investors and borrowing customers, while somehow keeping administration controllers satisfied that the bank strategies, advances and investment are rigorous. But the major purpose banks are commissioned by the centralized influencers is to make mortgages to their consumers. As banking officialdoms have grown in contemporary years in Bangladesh, many of them have been compulsory to turn to the money and capital markets to increase funds by marketing stocks and promises. Banks entry into the exposed market to raise resources means that their financial statements are progressively being inspected by stockholders and by the general public. This expansion has placed management under great stress to set and meet bank routine goals.

At the same moment, rivalry for banks traditional loan and deposit consumers has increased melodramatically. Bankers are dealing with risk especially the risk of loss due to changing interest charges. Nowadays banks are highly multifaceted organizations. Bankers have been called upon to repeatedly reexamine their loan and deposits strategies, review their tactics for expansion and evolution, assets their returns and risk in the light of this new modest atmosphere. Thus the active management tools can be arranged in a coordinated fashion to handle many of the dangers banks face.

In BBA program, everything we have learnt is decently hypothetical. It was essential to produce some real-world effort for better elucidation. Owing to my excessive curiosity on Foreign Exchange technique of bank, Southeast Bank Limited, Shyamoli branch was picked.
1.2 Rationale of the study:

Through the fast growing rivalry among state-owned, overseas and remote profitable banks as to how the banks activates its banking and how customer service can be made more eye-catching, the opportunities of the customers have enormously improved. Retorting the mawkishness, commercial/private banks are trying to evaluate their old-style banking service to an improved standard. Under the above condition, it has attentive its attention towards the development of the customer facility. That’s why it is quite defensible to make development. The revision may help expressing policy regarding the ideas connecting to the sensation of the clients and banks. Additionally, Southeast Bank Limited actually implements the policies assumed by the top organization will have a chance to interconnect their feelings and will have the reaction about their transactions with the consumers.

1.3 Purposes of the Study:

The overall purposes of the study is to get an on-the-job experience to real-world business world and a prospect for translation of hypothetical concept into real life condition. Though the exact purposes of the study are as surveys:

- To present hypothetical features of Southeast Bank’s Foreign Exchange mechanism.
- To attain Practical idea about all-purpose actions of Bank regarding Foreign Exchange, Credit Dept. and General Banking.
- To study the Foreign Exchange appliance of Southeast Bank Ltd.
- To make clear with real-world job environment.
- To perceive banker-customer bonding.
- To find out some difficulties and boundaries of Southeast Bank and its Foreign Exchange appliance.
- To suggest some possible educative dealings to overwhelmed the difficulties of Foreign Exchange Division.
- To have an acquaintance on the financial organizations like banking environment of Bangladesh.
- To relate the philosophies of banking with the real world in banking.
1.4 Methodology:

To sort the statement more expressive and personable, only subordinate data was used as the source of collecting information. So, only subordinate data was used to produce the report.

Secondary Sources/ External Sources:

- Web site of Southeast Bank Limited and other bank’s web site.
- Official papers of (SEBL) Southeast Bank Limited.
- Various journals of various Banks.
- Various Internship reports of various Banks.
- Various leaflet of Southeast Bank Ltd.
- The archive of the Southeast Bank Limited
- Bangladesh Bank Report. Newspaper, magazines

1.5 Some boundaries of Study: -

The boundaries of this study are:

- All the time of making my report I strained to gather every particulars of procedure but the major restriction is lack of ample information.
- Lack of chance to visit more than one branch.
- Adequate records, journals were not available as per my prerequisite.
- Time constriction.
- Though bankers have strained their best to help me, their countryside of work is such that gives them slight time to deliberate.

- Threats:

  Multinational Banks: The appearance of the multinational banks and their prompt growth poses a potential risk to the new PCB’s. Due to the thriving energy sector, more foreign banks are predictable to arrive in Bangladesh. Furthermore, the already present foreign banks such as Standard Chartered are now hunting a destructive branch development plan. These banks are instituting more branches nationwide and are estimated to get into for process soon. Since the foreign banks have marvelous financial power, it will posture a danger to local banks to a certain amount in terms of clutching the well-paid clients.

  Upcoming Banks: The future private local banks can also posture a threat to the current PCB’S. It is predictable that in the next few years more native private banks may appear. If that occurs the strength of rivalry will rise additional and banks will have to grow plans to complete in contradiction of an on massacre of foreign banks.

  Mergers and acquisitions: The universal trend of fusions and attainment in monetary institutions is causing attentiveness in power in the manufacturing and participants are cumulative in power in their individual areas.

  Contemporary Banks: The modern banks of SEBL like Dhaka Bank, Prime Bank Eastern Bank and Dutch-Bangla Bank are its major opponents. Prime Bank and others are carrying out aggressive campaign to appeal well-paid corporate clients as well as big time investors. SEBL should remain attentive about the steps taken by these banks as these will in turn touch SEBL tactics.

2.13.4 Foreign Exchange Buying Rates:

Buying rates is known at which the banks are keen to obtain foreign currencies. The different types of buying rates are:

1) T. T. (Clean): The T. T. clean buying rate is the rudimentary rate of exchange from which other types of buying rates are calculated, since in case of T. T.s fund are paid over at the other end on the same day connecting no loss of interest, but may fascinate only small charges for Telex. The differences in other types of buying rates mentioned from the basic T. T. buying rate are primarily reliant on upon the nature of instruments to be bought which indicate the range of possible loss of attention, extra costs of collection or enlarged danger of capital loss.

2) T.T. (Documentary): This rate is applicable in which the control of document is tangled. Bank recovers supervision charges on the deal.

3) OD (Sight): This rate is smeared for transaction resulting in the acquisition or conveying of export bills. OD sight (export) buying rates differ from T.T. buying rates to the scope of loss of interest for the period the bank leftovers out of funds i.e. from the time the bank pays out cash comfortable

Basically the Foreign Exchange department deals with the L/C operation. The foreign exchange is indicating by the 3 categories of transactions. Those are:

2.14 Export/ Shipment:

Export/ shipment is the procedure of marketing product/goods and facilities to the another countries. By increasing manufacture in the distribute segment we may recover service level of such a vastly tenanted country such as Bangladesh. Their exports a huge number of goods and facilities to the foreign families. Expedient textile garments Jute, Jute-made products, frozen shrimps, tea are the main goods that Bangladeshi exporters transfer to foreign countries. Garments sector is the principal sector that exports the lion share of the country’s spread. Bangladesh exports most of its expedient garments goods to U.S.A and European Community (EC) countries. Bangladesh spreads about 40% of its expedient garments products to U.S.A. Most of the exporters who export through SEBL are expedient garments exporters.

Export L/C operation is just inverse of the import L/C procedure. For exporting goods by the local exporter, bank may act as advising banks and accumulating bank (negotiable bank) for the exporter.

2.14.1 Export Policy:

Export strategies articulated by the Ministry of Commerce, GOB transport the general advice and temptations for elevation of exports in Bangladesh. Export strategies also set out commodity-wise annual target.

It is categorical to formulate those strategies to protect a five-year period to build them concurrent with 5 years plan and afford the policy management.

The export-oriented private sector, across their illustrative bodies & activities are consulted in the preparation of export policies and signified in the different export preferment bodies, which can set up by the government.
2.14.2 Export Processes:

Import & export employment in Bangladesh is controlled by Export & Import (Act, 1950). In Foreign Exchange Regulation (Act, 1947), nobody can export by post and else by post any properties either straight or meanderingly to any place outside Bangladesh, unless a statement is equipped by the exporter to the gatherer of customs or to such other being as the Bangladesh Bank may stipulate in this behalf that foreign exchange on behalf of the full export value of the properties has been or will be willing of in a means and within a period stated by Bangladesh Bank. Payment for properties distributed from Bangladesh should be established through an Authorized Dealer in spontaneously convertible foreign currency or in Bangladeshi Taka from a Non-Resident Account. The Export segment deals with two types of Letter of credit that are as follows-

*Export Letter of Credit  *Back-to-Back Letter of Credit

2.14.3 Services against Export L/C

*Advising of Export L/C  *Add Confirmation of Export L/C

*Negotiation of Export Bill  *Acceptance of Export Bill

*Formalities for Export Letter of Credit  *Export Registration Certificate (ERC)

2.14.4 Back-to-Back L/C:

Back-to-Back L/C is a subordinate L/C that is opened by the seller’s bank and based on the master L/C to acquisition raw materials and the fixtures for industrial of export merchandise compulsory by sellers.

Expedient garment businesses and dedicated Textile units have been allowable the aptitude of introducing fabrics and additional material/accessories wanted for industrial garments textile, free of duty underneath bonded warehouse system in contradiction of back-to-back L/C arrangement, deprived of connecting cash foreign exchange from Bangladesh Bank. - Trade fair.
- COC.
- FM in Bangladesh.
- Journals.

2.16 L/C (Letter of credit):

The method used to make the imbursement in aid between the vendor and importer by a Commercial Bank is Letter of Credit. Instead by neglecting under some circumstances a decided amount is placed by the purchaser bank.

A credit in foreign currency in courtesy of the exporter at a bank in the letters state is opened by importer in a country desires his/her bank. Payment of the quantity by the importer or agreeable security contradict by the letter of credit is allotted. A draft under its rapports and sell to an exact bank in his/her country and the letter of credit sanctioned the exporter to attract. The exporter has to deliver such other papers as may be decided upon flanked by the exporter and importer, the bill of exchange and shipping leaflets.
2.16.1 Application of L/C:

Letter of credit Application is a fairly preparation in the middle of client and the bank and it delivers a L/C to the importer which is a written form. The form is attested by a distinct attested stamp which is 150 taka and at that time the stamp is negated. Typically, to open a L/C reciting the quantity of margin in proportion which is the importer couriers wish. The importer has the following rigidities-

*Full name and address of the Beneficiary, *Full name and address of the Applicant, *Draft amount (both in figure and word), *Whether the credit is available by payment, acceptance or negotiation, *The form of credit whether Revocable or Irrevocable, *On which party the draft are to be drawn and the tenure of such draft, *Whether the freight is to be prepaid or not, *A brief description of goods, including details of quantity and unit price, *The country of origin, *Partial shipment is allowed or not, *The date and place of ending of the credit & *Negotiation period.

2.16.2 Letter of Credit Application Scrutiny:

Letter of Credit Application by delivering, the branch bureaucrats inspect the same very prudently giving importance to the following.

- The rapports and circumstances of the Letter of credit must be satisfied with UCPDC 500 and EC&ITR.
- L/C application is printed as it is an assurance of payment.
- All the information stated in different columns has been well-appointed.
- Suitability of the belongings to be imported.
- If Letter of credit is released in contradiction of indentation, Bangladesh Bank’s authorization, legal record keeping, specialist to dispute indentation by indenter are to be patterned.
- HS code of the goods.
- The L/C essential not released in support of the importer or his agent.
- IMP form duly occupied and contracted.
- Validity of IRC.
- Radioactivity report in case of food items.
- Insurance cover note with date of shipment.
2.16.3 Documents Scrutiny:

First of all it must be safeguarded that full set of documents as stated in the L/C has been acknowledged. The division will continue prudently appearance into some key facts of each of the brochures observance in view the terms of Letter of credit. Roughly important squared opinions for the brochures are as surveys-

- Certificate of Origin
- Commercial Invoice
- Other Documents
- Bill of Exchange
- Bill of lading

Additional documents called for in the credit such as packing list, weight list, inspection certificate etc. to be tested whether drawn and allotted in agreement with the terms of the credit.

2.16.4 Forms of L/C:

L/C is fundamentally classified in two forms:

1) Revocable L/C: If some L/C can be improvement or altered of any article or irrecoverable by consensus of the distributers and wholesaler, it is stated as Revocable L/C.

In case of seller (beneficiary), revocable credit involves hazard, as the credit may be revised or annulled while the goods are in transit and beforehand the documents are presented, or even though presented before payments has been made. The vendor would then face the difficult procurement payment on the other hand revocable credit gives the purchaser maximum liveness, as it can be amended or cancelled without preceding notice to the seller up to the instant of payment buy the dispensing bank at which the issuing bank has made the credit obtainable. In the modern banking the use of revocable credit is not extensive.

2) Irrevocable Letter of Credit: If any Letter of Credit cannot be alteration or transformed of any clause without the agreement of all concern parties is known as Irrevocable Letter of Credit which are Importer (applicant), exporter (beneficiary), Issuing Bank, and Confirming Bank (in case of confirmed L/C).

An Irrevocable Letter of Credit organizes a firm responsibility by the distributing bank to make imbursement.
2.16.5 Types of Letter of credit:

Letter of credit is categorized into various types agreeing to the method of settlement engaged.

i) Sight Payment Credit: The most usually used credits are demonstration payment credits. These assemble for payment to be made to the recipient hostilely after presentation of the compulsory brochures on the condition that the terms of the credit have been adapted properly. The banks are acceptable reasonable time to perceive the document.

ii) Differed Payment Credit: Under a behind payment credit the recipient does not acquire when he/she largesse the documents but at a later date recognized in the credit term. On offering the obligatory documents, he/she achieves the sanctioned banks written activity to make payment of maturity.

iii) Acceptance/Recognition Credit: Payment is made with recognition credit and within the procedure of a term bill of exchange which is haggard on the buyer by the dispensing bank. Once the importer satisfied the credit obligation, the payee can demand that the bill of exchange be acknowledged. Thus the acknowledged bill receipts the dwelling of cash reimbursement.

iv) Negotiation Credit: It means other merchantable tools or the acquisition and sale of bill of altercation. The communication is generally transported to the address by a communicator bank.

A negotiation credit is profitable L/C released by the allotting bank in the bills of its own country and talked in a straight line to the receiver.

v) Transferable Credit: Transferable credit is one under which the exporter has transcribed to make the credit obtainable to one or more subsequent recipients. When the credit is exchangeable, it is articulated sated as such by the allotting bank on the face of L/C. The credit is to be conveyed only under the terms and circumstances stated in the original L/C.

2.16.6 Operations of Documentary Letters of Credit:
The subsequent 5 main ladders are tangled in the operation of a textual l/c:

1. Issuing a Letter of Credit: As per prerequisite of the seller, the buyer then teaches the bank the allotting bank-to dispute a credit in favor of the seller (beneficiary). Beforehand allotting/issuing a L/C, the seller and the buyer positioned in different accomplishes a ‘sales contract’ on condition that for payment by documentary credit, the purchaser (importer) in the allotting bank’s standard form which is tutoring/Application for allotting a credit should be made.

2. Advising a Letter of Credit: A bank is a seeming genuineness of the credit to the seller is counseling through a bank. The procedure of counseling a credit consists of advancing the original credit to the beneficiary to whom it is talked. Before advancing, the counseling bank has to verify the signature (s) of the officer (s) of the inaugural bank and guarantee that the terms and conditions of the credit are not in defilement of the prevailing exchange control guidelines and other guidelines relating to export. In such act of advising, the recommending bank does not assume any liability.

3. Amendment of Credit: Parties involved in a L/C, predominantly the seller and the buyer, cannot always gratify the terms and conditions in full as anticipated due to some noticeable and genuine explanations. The allotting bank at any instant and without prior notice to the recipient but it can be corrected or canceled or irrecoverable in case of revocable credit. The allotting bank, the approving bank (if any) and the recipient can neither be edited nor canceled without the arrangement in case of irreversible credit.

4. Presentation of Documents: The vendor being content with the rapports and circumstances of the acclaim profits to notice the buyer and after that, has to present the brochures verifying dispatching of goods to the selling bank on or before the postulated expiry date of the credit. They are originate as per credit necessities, either.

   a) Reimburses in the pre-agreed manner
   b) Effects payment, or

5. Settlement: Full filling the promises of delivering bank in regard to effecting reimbursement subject to satisfying the credit terms completely is known as Settlement. As instruct in the credit, this settlement may be done underneath three separate preparations. Which are:

   a) Settlement by Payment: The bank then inspects the documents which documents the seller provide to the disbursing bank. If the issuing bank is pleased with the necessities, the compensating bank from the issuing bank gains payment. If satisfied, the paying bank makes reimbursement to the recipient and in case this bank is other than the allotting bank, then sends the brochures to the issuing bank.
b) Settlement by Acceptance: The draft drawn on the bank (where credit is available) at the quantified tenor under the preparation, the seller succumbs the documents evidencing the consignment to the accepting bank escorted. By pleasing with the documents the bank accept documents and the draft drawn on the bank (where credit is available) at the quantified tenor.

c) Settlement by Negotiation: A draft drawn or the purchaser or any other draw, at sight or at a mood, as specified in the credit, this payment procedure starts with the proposal of documents by the vender to the negotiating bank escorted. After inspecting that the documents meet the credit necessities, the bank may assign the draft. This bank sends the brochures and the draft to the allotting bank as if other than the allotting bank. As usual, the accepted manner will be obtained in compensation.

2.16.7 Parties Involved in Operation of Letter of Credit:

The importer has tapered to acquisitions some commodity/merchandises by a bank at the request of an importer in courtesy of an exporter where a letter of credit is allotted. The exporter, the importer and the allotting bank are the revelries to the letter of credit.

a) The Buyer (Importer) & The Beneficiary (Exporter): The importer at whose appeal a letter of credit is allotted, known as the buyer. The distributors in whose errand the praise is released and too whom the l/c is talked is known as the beneficiary. As the seller of properties the exporter is authorized to the obtain payment which he/she does by representation bills underneath the letter of credit.

b) The Issuing Bank (Opening Bank): The opening bank is one that subjects the letter of credit at the appeal of the buyer. By allotting a letter of credit it takes upon itself the responsibility to pay the bills drawn beneath the credit.

c) The Advising Bank: The letter of credit is diffused to the beneficiary over and done with a bank in the letters country. The bank branch of the opening bank. The credit is onetime counseled to this bank by cable and then conveyed by it to the recipient on own its specified form.

Chapter 5
Recommendations & Conclusions
5.1 Recommendation:

Southeast Bank, one of the most prosperous Banks of Bangladesh, has wide evolution opportunities of the industry. Through this analysis I myself expanded some real-world familiarity about Import & Export commercial in Bangladesh added connected substance. I want to put some proposal here which I think if shadowed would unquestionably help Southeast Bank Ltd. to encourage its import and export business and there-by its influence in the whole economy.

Suggestions are-

1. To draw more clients SEBL should require original advertising tactic, which will upsurge the total export and import business
2. Introduction of various inducements to upsurge remittance.
3. The administrators of foreign exchange have essential effective training.

5.2 Conclusion:

In the recent sphere of corporate starved of bank’s co-operation and it is nearly unbearable to run any occupational or manufacture business unit. Exports and import essential investment in numerous phases of their actions. Southeast Bank Limited is playing a vigorous role in financing import and exports of the country and assisting the businesses by providing funds to run.

In Bangladesh, tons of native and overseas banks opposing in banking diligence, the potentiality of the SEBL for 14 years in guardianship very magnificently. Southeast Bank has to compete in this modest marketplace; there also have public banks as well as commercial banks and other financial organizations. In near future, I think bank and mobile companies will come together to raise the banking service and make it accessible to people’s hand.

Before the internship, I had the impression about banking but that was only academic. Now after completing my internship period and preparing the term paper on it I got the real-world aspect of banking. It will unquestionably help me to see the things from banking viewpoint also.
