Executive Summary

Marketing ability is the thing in which financial success depends for a company. All the other departments like finance, operations, accounting, and other functions will not work properly if there are no marketing practices because every department are interlinked. The primary purpose of the marketing for a company to know the actual demand of the product and services then communicate with the customers and deliver product to them. Successfully selling the product mainly depends on a few variables like product quality, product price and how to perceive the product by the customers. After all the primary target of the marketers is to help a product to create positioning and positive image in the mind of the consumers. In this internship report, I have done a study on “Marketing Practices of ACI Limited-A case study on ACI Mosquito Aerosol.” I have tried to find out their strengths, weakness, opportunities, and threats. ACI Limited has been successfully established themselves in the market through by their “Mosquito Aerosol” though they have many other products also. In this report, I have also discussed the market share of ACI Mosquito Aerosol, and with that I have addressed the segmentation broadly, targeting and positioning strategy of ACI Mosquito Aerosol. ACI Limited has a stable distribution channel so that their Aerosol is available all over the country. In this report, I have also discussed advertising and promotional strategy. I also found that currently ACI Mosquito Aerosol is the market leader but the other competitors are trying to capture their market by using their new innovative ideas and enhanced marketing plan. And after seeing all the evidence and analysis, it can be concluded that currently, ACI Mosquito Aerosol is the market leader through by their premium quality and well-organized distribution channel.

3.0 Analysis and Findings
3.1 Market

Where two or more entities exchange products or services and we generally know this is called market. Here one party sells products or services called seller and who purchase products or services called buyer.

Overview of the market of ACI Aerosol:

Market of ACI Aerosol is basically divided on 2 sides. One is domestic another is international.

3.1.1 Domestic Market

Bangladesh is a developing country but the overview of the market of ACI Aerosol is very rich and currently they are the market leader. Though they are the market leader but still they are trying to improve their market situation. They are here within a very short time just because of their innovative marketing strategies. In Bangladesh ACI Limited introduced the concept of quality management system which helps them to achieve ISO9001 certification and that how committed they are to maintaining quality in every business units. Right now they are covering both Rural and Urban areas with the help of 18 depots.

3.1.2 International Market

After the successful positioning in domestic market now ACI Limited providing their Aerosol in International market. The quality management certificate helps a lot to spreading their market domestic to international. Now they are successfully proving Aerosol in Vietnam, Mayan-mar, Yemen and Srilanka.
3.1.3 Market share of ACI Aerosol in domestic market:

If we want to know the market share of ACI mosquito Aerosol in domestic market then we have to compare it with its main two competitors and they are X PEL and HIT

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Product</th>
<th>Share percentage:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ACI Mosquito Aerosol</td>
<td>81%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>X PEL Aerosol</td>
<td>6%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIT Aerosol</td>
<td>3%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

From this comparison we can say that ACI mosquito Aerosol is the market leader.
ACI Aerosol

ACI Aerosol is the number one choice for the consumer. ACI Limited collected the chemicals for their Aerosol from well known Japanese company: Sumitto. And that ensure the efficiency and safety of human health. For these reasons ACI Aerosol become “The most effective insect killer”. There are five different packages of ACI Aerosol 800ml, 475ml, 350ml, 250ml, 125ml. And all the packages are available all over the country.
XPEL

Xpel Aerosol is a product of Squire toiletries and it is also a very well known product. Xpel Aerosol is made on the basis of formula that potent against the buzzing threat of mosquito and it also causing no harm to human health.
HIT Mosquito killer

Hit is one of the most popular product of Godrej consumer products. In India Godrej has successfully made position in the mind of consumers. After successfully position in the Indian market now they are spreading their wings globally. Their aim is to offer superior quality as well as effective solution.

Hit mosquito killer is available in 4 different packages and these are 100ml, 200ml, 300ml and 400ml.
3.2 Market Segmentation

Market Segmentation is a procedure of partitioning the market of potential clients into various gatherings and portions based on specific attributes. The individual from these gatherings share comparable qualities and more often than not have at least one than one viewpoint basic among them.

There are numerous reasons concerning why division is needed. One of the real reasons advertisers fragment market is on the grounds that they can make custom marketing mix for each portion and provide product them likewise.

3.2.1 ACI Limited use some Bases for Segment their Aerosol Market:

Segmenting is partitioning a group into subgroups according to some set ‘basis’. These bases range from age, gender, etc. to psycho graphic factors like attitude, interest, values, etc. But here all the bases will not be perfect for segment the market of Aerosol.

Income

Income decides the purchasing power of the target audience. So there are three income groups and they are:

4. High Income Group
5. Mid Income Group
6. Low Income Group

And here ACI target these two income group the first one and the second one whom are able to purchase their Aerosol and they set the price of their product with the consideration of this two income group.

Place

We generally know in marketing place means where product is available. And with this consideration ACI distributes their product very carefully. Mainly they distribute their Aerosol in urban areas because of they have to consider the income group. In rural areas most of the people are not able to purchase their Aerosol. So in that case they distribute their mosquito coil which is very much affordable for them.

Occupation

Occupation is another one like income and place which have influence on purchasing behavior. ACI consider this factor very carefully because of they know each and every people will not be able to purchase their Aerosol because of everyone occupation is not same and that is vary everyone income. So they manly focus on those position people whose income is higher.

Lifestyle

In that case ACI Limited focus segment their product on the basis of lifestyle of the people. They sees that those people whom are not comfortable with mosquito coil they will purchase their Aerosol and on the other hand sometimes status matters. There are few peoples who thinks if they use Aerosol rather than mosquito coil that will help them to maintain their status.
3.2.2 Types of Market Segmentation

Geographic Segmentation:

Geographic Segmentation divides the market into geographical units such as nations, states, regions, countries, cities or neighborhoods. The company can operate in one or few areas or it can operate in all but pay attention to local variations.

Demographic Segmentation:

In demographic segmentation we divide market on variables such as age, family size, family life cycle, gender, income, education, race and social class.
Behavioral Segmentation:

The market is also segmented based on audience’s behavior, usage, preference, choices and decision making. The segments are usually divided based on their knowledge of the product and usage of the product. It is believed that the knowledge of the product and its use affects the buying decision of an individual. The audience can be segmented into –

7. Those who know about the product,
8. Those who don’t know about the product,
9. Ex-users,
10. Potential users,
11. Current Users,
12. First time users, etc.

Psycho-graphic Segmentation

Psycho-graphic Segmentation divides the audience on the basis of their personality, lifestyle and attitude. This segmentation process works on a premise that consumer buying behavior can be influenced by his personality and lifestyle.

Among all of the four types segmentation ACI Limited use here three types of segmentation and these are geographic, demographic and psycho-graphic.

If we consider the bases of the segmentation, then we will see that ACI Limited has focused on Income, Occupation, Place, and Lifestyle for segmenting their Aerosol market and that indicates that ACI Limited is highly focused on Geographic Segmentation, Demographic Segmentation, and psycho-graphic Segmentation.
3.3 Target Marketing

A target market is the market an organization needs to pitch its items and administrations to, and it incorporates a focused set of clients for whom it coordinates its promoting endeavors. Recognizing the target market is a fundamental advance in the improvement of a segmentation plan. An objective market can be isolated from the market in general by geography, buying power, demographics and psycho-designs.

There are four generic target marketing strategies:

Undifferentiated Marketing

There will not be strong differences in customer characteristics. To develop different marketing strategy for different customer groups will take higher cost and the company will not be able to reach their target customers frequently. But one single marketing mix will take less cost and will be easy to find out target customers.

Differentiated Marketing

That is another marketing strategy where the companies target multiple market segmentation to maximize their profit. For targeting multiple market segment companies need to have capabilities. Without capabilities it is not possible to target multiple segment because of here companies have to full fill large number of customer needs.

Focus or Concentrated Marketing

In this type of marketing strategy Company goes for only one segment. Because of may the company have not enough capabilities or few segments may not be so attractive. In this type of marketing company establish specialized marketing mix.
13. Customized Marketing

Customized marketing is called tailor marketing. That means in this marketing strategy marketers provide individual or customized designed special product. They highly value special needs of rich customers.

Undifferentiated marketing strategy

ACI Limited provide same product for each and every customers. There is no change in quality of the product. Because of its mosquito Aerosol so its not possible to make different quality in same product that is why they have go with undifferentiated marketing strategy.

Differentiated marketing strategy

ACI Limited gives the same product to each and every customer but they have differentiated their product by making different size that is why this product can called as differentiated product.

This is the two ways ACI Limited use their target marketing strategy for their ACI Mosquito Aerosol and so far they are very successful.

3.4 Positioning

Positioning is about the mind of the purchaser. Setting an organization or a brand the shopper's psyche in connection to the competition. The situating choice is frequently the basic vital choice for an organization or a brand in light of the fact that the position can be fundamental to clients' recognition and decision choices.

Now we will see that what are the strategies has been used by ACI Limited for making positioning of ACI Mosquito Aerosol:

Positioning by price/quality: A very pervasive approach to positioning. ACI Limited set up the price of their product very carefully. They are offering more quantity than their competitors and as well as they are maintaining their quality also.
Competitor analysis: ACI Limited investigate and analyze their competitors which helps to determine the strengths and weaknesses of their main competitors like Mortin and HiT. Understanding the differences between a business and its competitors is central to finding gaps in the market that can be filled.

Positioning by attribute: That is the most frequent positioning strategy. Here ACI Limited focus is on a particular attribute, a product feature, or customer benefits. Here ACI Limited shows that their Aerosol is very useful against mosquitoes and there is no other problem which can be very harmful for their health and as well as for environment.

Determine current position: ACI Limited always determine their existing market position and it is vital as any competitor analysis. That’s because you have to understand your own market position to be able to properly compete for your share.

Positioning with respect to a competitor: ACI Limited always focus on their competitors and they keep good relationship with them but they always serous on the basis of timely delivery and manufacturing excellence. That is one of their positioning strategy which make them prominent than their competitors. They always maintain their good relationship with all the competitors and that helps them to know more about their competitors.

3.5 Marketing Mix of ACI Aerosol

3.5.1 Product:

We know product is the least important of all the 4 Ps. Without the product or services no one will be able to provide a value to the customers. And this is why ACI Limited is always focus on customer satisfaction. The unique selling proposition of ACI mosquito Aerosol is superior product quality. And this is another reason why ACI Aerosol is the leader of the market. ACI
Limited use unique technology to produce their Aerosol. In that way they make so different than their competitors. And it helps them to make their customers so loyal to their brand.

Four types of consumer products:

A consumer product is a product purchase for final consumers for individual consumption. But not all consumer product is the same. There are four different types of consumer products. Marketers normally categorize consumer products into these 4 types of consumer products:

- Convenience products
- Shopping products
- Specialty product
- Unsought products.

These 4 types of consumer products each have various characteristics and refer a various consumer purchase behavior. Hence, the variety of consumer products differ in the way consumers purchase them and, for that ground, in the style they should be marketed.
Convenience products

Among the four types of consumer products the customers purchasing convenience product more frequently. A convenience product is a consumer product or service that customers usually purchase frequently, instantly and without great comparing or purchasing attempt.

Shopping products

This is the second one and shopping product means that customer mainly compare attributes of the product like as quality, price, style with the other available options. In that sense convenience and shopping products are different. One is purchased frequently and other is more carefully compared. And also consumers spend much time and effort to gathering information and compare with available alternatives.

Specialty products-

This type of products is with unique characteristics or brand identification for which a significant group of customers is willing to make special purchase effort. From that we can say that specialty product requires a special purchase effort but only for certain consumers.

Unsought products

Unsought products are those consumer products that a consumer informed or does not informed about but does not reckon in normal situation. The consumers usually don’t think about the product until they need it.

After considering all these types of consumer product we can categories ACI Aerosol as a Convenience product. In that sense we can call it as a convenience product that ACI Limited already knows their customer and they will be able to purchase their Aerosol without any problem because they have already identified their segment on the basis of income, location, occupation. And these kinds of customers are willingly purchase their Aerosol. So for those customers we can say ACI mosquito Aerosol is convenience product.

3.5.2 Price

Price is one of the most sensitive aspect of marketing function. Pricing function has to be well planned and that should reflect the utility that the product provides. There are some customers who won’t mind to pay extra to get some value added benefits especially those who are higher level of income. ACI Aerosol produce high quality products and to balance with their cost they follow “premium pricing strategy”. Though they are charging high but their customers are very loyal to their product because of superior quality. Through their competitors are giving the same product with lower cost but till now ACI Aerosol is the market leader just because of their quality.

3.5.3 Place

We generally knew in marketing place means where product is available. The distribution channel of ACI Limited is well organized and that is why ACI Aerosol is available in every departmental store. ACI Limited has several sales offices which are located in different places around Bangladesh. So with that advantage they can distribute their product very easily within very short time in all over the country. This is another of ACI Aerosol to be the market leader. Because their main competitors distribution channels are not well organized as ACI Limited.

3.5.4 Promotion:

Promotion is another very important aspect for an organization to inform, influence and retain the target market. The promotional activities of ACI Limited are not up to the mark though they are the market leader. They are not so concern about their promotional activities for two reasons:
Most of their customers are loyal

The Brand Equity of ACI Limited is very high.

This two reasons work as an awareness and helps them to retain their loyal customers.

But the perception of the customers can be changed so ACI Limited should be more concern about their promotional activities. They can go for improving their promotional activities like extend Advertisement on billboards, newspapers, and television and advertisement banners. Also ACI Limited should have given focus on rural area about bad effect of mosquito. Then their customers will be more motivated to buying their product.

3.9 Findings:

After analyzing the marketing practices of ACI Limited of Mosquito Aerosol, the following findings are predominant.

- In segmentation ACI Limited only focus on high-income group and mid-income group.
- Concerning target marketing, they don’t focus on real and customized marketing.
- Regarding positioning strategy, they don’t focus on image differentiation
- The unique selling proposition (USP) of ACI Limited is a high-quality product
- They use updated modern technology.
- In case of convenience product, it is only for high and mid-level income group.
- ACI Aerosol following “Premium Pricing Strategy”
- ACI Aerosol is available almost every departmental store all over the country.
- The promotional activities are not up to the mark.
4.0 Conclusion and Recommendations
4.1 Conclusion

In Bangladesh, ACI Aerosol has been the number one choice for the customers. But in recent times the perceptions of the customers are changing, but until now ACI Aerosol has the highest number of market share in the industry of Bangladesh. So in that sense, it can be concluded that their customers are very loyal to the brand. But the perceptions and taste of the customers can be changed so ACI Limited should be aware and concern about the taste and opinions of the customers that will help them to maintain their domination in the industry.
4.2 Recommendations

ACI Aerosol is leading brand in aerosol market of Bangladesh. But there are some points which can be improved. If they can do this, then that will help for the long run.

• Now the common complaint of their customer is the effectiveness of ACI Aerosol is decreasing. So they must be the focus on that statement and have to think about how they can solve this problem as soon as possible. If they can do that that will help them to retain their existing customers.

• Promotion is another big thing that ACI Limited should think about it. Because of always they have to connect with their current customers and also it will help to create new customers.

• Another thing is ACI Limited should give focus on rural areas and low-income level people. Because that is their opportunity to capture this market. ACI Limited can produce small packages of ACI Aerosol for low-income people.

• ACI Aerosol is available almost every departmental store all over the country, and that process should be continued so that they will be able to keep their domination in the market for the long run.
