UIU ranked top private university in QS rankings

United International University (UIU) has been ranked among top 350 universities in Asia, according to the list of QS Asia University Ranking 2019.

Only two public and four private universities from Bangladesh have been ranked where Dhaka University and BUET have occupied 127th and 175th position respectively, said a press released by the UIU on Wednesday. UIU along with BRACU and NSU has been placed in top 301-350 universities. QS (Quacquarelli Symonds) ranking is the most prestigious and widely accepted ranking in the educational world. UIU Vice-Chancellor Prof Dr Chowdhury Mofizur Rahman expressed satisfaction over the achievement of UIU.
