Executive Summary

During the period of Internship, I got an opportunity to work in the Brand department at Akij Food and Beverage Limited. I had a chance to observe and learn their marketing and branding practices or strategies as well as the promotional activities across the company. Therefore, I completed my report on the title “Marketing and Branding Practices of Akij Food Limited – A Study on Speed Carbonated Soft Drinks.” The overall information and data have been collected from both primary and secondary sources. Currently, the competitive practices in the carbonated soft drinks and digestive drinks business industry lead the company to the critical circumstance to survive. This research is helpful for marketers to decide what consumers’ wants, customers’ preference level, buying behavior as well as understand about the brand favorability and familiarity.

The main objective of this study is to find out the overall marketing and branding practices of an organization as well as the Carbonated Soft Drinks of Bangladesh. Food and beverage sector play a vital role in the economy of Bangladesh. Akij Food and Beverage Ltd. also a renowned food and beverage producers and market leader in the local market, it covers the lion’s part in this profitable sector. SPEED is a beverage which is familiar as Carbonated Soft Drinks. It’s a flagship brand of Akij Food and Beverage Ltd. Last year SPEED got the Best Brand Award in the beverages industry of Bangladesh. By this internship report, I tried to show the SWOT (Strength, Weakness, Opportunity, Threats) for the brand SPEED. Also, this report described one of the most important parts of a marketing plan, Four P’s or marketing mix of Speed. This report also covered the branding strategies like various promotional activities like ATL, BTL, TTL or digital marketing. After analyzing the overall marketing and branding strategies of Speed and from my observation, I tried to provide some valuable recommendations in the last part of this report.
Chapter 1

Introduction
1.0 Introduction

Our country is experiencing continuous growth through Fast Moving Consumer Goods, or Consumer Packaged Goods and beverage goods are also in a developing stage. Every day more than thousands of items of drinking products are consumed by customers. Native and non-native companies are involving and investing in this sector to fulfill customers’ demand, enlarge style and expand the business. An entire competitive atmosphere has been created by several native and non-native franchisees within the beverage market. A collection of some minerals products with specific set up of affix with is the beverage market. The alternative soda or digestive drinks business companies are highly competitive in the Fast Moving Consumer Goods industry. The industry circumstance wasn't like this in the past. With the massive potentials of capturing market share during this business, competition has raised among the present companies as well as a threat of the latest entrance is additionally there. In case of alternative soft drinks Akij Food and Beverage Ltd. (AFBL) is also in the competitive market with their brand Speed. As the consumers’ lifestyles have developed in our country people are more into prepared packaged food. The demand for beverage products is huge. The basis on the types of attributes beverage is often different. The refreshment advertises essentially an arrangement of intensive mineral items to fix attributes joined with it. The significant item classified the primary determinates of the market that are Carbonated Soft Drinks (CSD), drinking water, organic product juice, caffeinated drinks, increased water, Non-Alcoholic brew. In alternative carbonated soft drink market “The Globe Soft drinks” and “AST beverage Ltd” has their trendy brand “Royal Tiger.” However, currently, Akij Food and beverage are massively well-known in the market of alternative carbonated soft drinks with their brand “Speed” is one of the leading brands within the competitive market. But there is a brand new entrance of a beverage company in the market, brought by the Meghna group of industry. Although this is an old company however new brands in the beverage market like “Gear” energy drinks, “Soul up” and “Fresh” drinking water and “Fresh Mejanda” there is potential competition during this business. AFBL started its production at four hundred BPH in the carbonated soft drinks line. AFBL has enlarged its volume to 1800 BPH during the length of one and half years. Nowadays its volume is a shift at the bottom rate of 1900 BPH. More or less than three years, Akij Food and Beverage Ltd. volume has enhanced three layers; at the same time, most of its trades became either variety one or on the edge of changes on in their separate categories. AFBL’s hardware and equipment are imported from renowned industries such as Crones, Tetra Pak, Alfa Laval, Spa, and Risky to meet the highest quality of the products.

1.1 Origin of the Study

An internship program is pre-requisite to complete the BBA program. Before completion of the program, the student should endure the internship program. 2.4 SWOT Analysis

The SWOT analysis of AFBL will provide information to help in finding out resources and capabilities within this competitive environment in which it operates. It can also help in formulation and selection of strategies. Following discussion shows how a SWOT analysis of AFBL fits into country’s competitive food and beverage market.

Strengths:

• World class quality machineries and up to date manufacturing systems producing more units within a short production time period.
• Successfully establishment of local brands for example MOJO, SPEED, FRUTIKA, CHEESE PUFFS.
• Consistently improve the taste and quality of the food and beverage products.
• Strong distribution channel around the country.
• Full sleeve-Packaging with attracting color combination and stylish design backing the product brand image.
• Potable 250ml bottles, cans and 125ml tetra packs.
• Wide scope of items with more than 70 SKUs.
• Favorable brand image than the competitor’s brand
Weaknesses:

- Less comprehension of timely and proper customer needs.
- Some promotional activities which is not appropriate with their famous brands.
- Not so strong relationship with few distributors and supply-chain-manager.
- Lack of brand awareness.
- Insufficient promotional activities than competitors.
- Less availability of the products compared to competitors.
- Less compliance of market demand.

Opportunities:

- Great profitability of capacity in food and beverage industry of Bangladesh and attain a large number of market share for the CSD (Carbonated Soft Drinks) products.
- Upgraded taste and quality can shift the consumer’s choice over competitor’s product.
- Huge opportunity to export more food and beverage products to over sea marketplace.

In CSD (Carbonated Soft Drinks) class, energy drink is one of the quickest developing and profitable categories in the Bangladeshi FMCG business. Speed is the market pioneer in the non-caffeinated savor classification Bangladesh advertises from last five years. Tiger is the second market pioneer in the classification having market share near 15%. Tiger is confronting serious competition and furthermore losing their share from the overall local industry from speed. To snatch the market of CSD, they relaunched another brand in the local marketplace which is Black Horse with new marketing strategies and promotional campaign. They are doing multiple of BTL level practices in the market. Currently Black Horse became a strong competitor of Speed. There is some other food and beverage producer companies are entering in the market as it is one of the more quickly developing industries in FMCG.
Best Brand Award 2018

Since its journey Akij Food and Beverage Ltd (AFBL) has been struggling to maintain standard and improve the quality of Speed. And this is the first time Speed has become the number one brand in CSD Alternative category in local market.

“The Best Brand Award” program was organized by Bangladesh Brand Forum, held on 8th December 2018. At this event Chief Marketing Officer (CMO) Hindol Roy, Assistant General Manager (AGM) Maidul Islam and Assistant Brand Manager Muntasir Mamun received the Best Brand Award on behalf of Akij Food and Beverage Limited in this event held at La Meridien. This grand achievement helps Speed to get more competitive advantage as well as increases brand value in competitive market place.
3.2 Segmentation, Targeting and Positioning (STP) Strategy of Speed

Marketing and Branding Practices of Akij Food Limited – A Study on Speed Carbonated Soft Drink
3.4 Findings

Based on my official work experiences in brand department of Speed and personal observation within the three months internship time period I have found few findings regarding marketing and branding practice of Speed, those are given below:

- Speed is a flagship product of Akij Food and Beverage Ltd. Customer demand of this product is high as well as the sales amount. Speed already captured 60% of market share in alternative soft drinks market.

- Observing the sales performance, I have found that Speed’s sales performance is up to mark in local marketplace. Speed has more than 60% market share among other AFBL products and it is the number one beverage in alternative soft drinks market position currently.

- Various sales promotion activities are taken by Speed to increase its sales like “Slab Program” that helps to boost up the sales. These initiatives provide to the dealers and distributors each month.

- Conducting the sales performance analysis, I identified that the sales performance level of Speed is very high rather than its other competitors.

- Speed’s slogan is familiar among the local marketplace.

- Promotional activities such as TVC, PVC, RDC and other online engagement posts are able to attract the customer’s mind. Content marketing helps Speed to create buzz.

- The Distribution Channel of Speed is so vast and stronger than their competitors and it makes Speed convenience.

- By using competitive and market oriented pricing strategy Speed makes it product price

- Without conducting market research AFBL does not set the countrywide sales target.
Chapter 4

Conclusion and Recommendations
4.0 Conclusion

The carbonated beverage drink producers in Bangladesh succeed mainly as a result of complying with the consumer’s buying power and delivering the message to the end users effectively. The price sensitiveness of the local customers makes a powerful base of success for the local producers. The journey of SPEED is nearly twelve years and as a local brand it has to compete with some robust competitors like Tiger and Power.

The pace at that AFBL is presently accelerating, can beyond any doubt that guide the company to the prosperity where most of the market shares are going to be controlled by AFBL. And Speed is developing day by day as we see. It’s become the foremost selling brand in the previous couple of years. Concluding my analysis outline by stating that, working with this type of growing company, life cycle allowed me to accumulate with pragmatic understanding which will be an excellent help for my future career achievements. It is an excellent concern that respondents take energy drinks giving most priority on the promotional matters rather than product quality, price and ingredients.

Speed branding is one of the explanations behind the market leader. Speed continuously tries to attach with the customers. That’s why day by day Speed demand incising day by day. Individuals are not careful to require alternative carbonated soft drinks for emotional thirst and obtaining refreshment. As manufacturers of beverage shave wide distribution network across the country to create these drinks obtainable; consumers also can notice alternative beverage manufacturer products available within the market, in order that they will take water or alternative soft drinks as substitute of carbonated soft drinks (alternative). Most customers assume that soft drinks can offer them sensible stamina and calories. AFBL continuously attempt to influence over the client mind by branding.
4.1 Recommendations

Some recommendations regarding the marketing and branding practices of Speed carbonated soft drink are given below-

• AFBL have to maintain Total Quality Management (TQM) to remain the number one position in carbonated soft drinks (alternative) competitive market.

• AFBL need to do more research and development to maintain and improve the taste of Speed.

• In the case of digital marketing, Speed need to use attractive content to create buzz marketing.

• Need to arrange more training program to increase the skills and knowledge of the sales team.

• Have to maintain a strong relationship with distributors to keep the products available in retailers point.

• For setting the events and activations time, AFBL needs to be more careful.

• Have to focus on competitor’s marketing and branding strategies and develop the contingency plans to overcome any situations.

• They should emphasize the event (sponsor) & social engagement to extend the brand awareness of Speed.

• In case of choosing the third parties or Ad-agencies for promotional purpose AFBL needs to follow a strict procedure.

• Event team of AFBL needs to be more organized.
