Industry & Company Overview
2.1 Bangladesh BPO industry:

Business process outsourcing (BPO) is a subset of outsourcing that includes doing of the tasks and functions of a specific business process to a third-party service provider. Usually, BPO is execute as a cost-saving options for tasks that a company needs but does not depend on to keep their position in the marketplace. There are two categories of BPO. They are Back office outsourcing & Front office outsourcing services. BPO which is contracted outside a company's country is called offshore outsourcing. BPO which is contracted to a company's neighboring (or nearby) country is called near shore outsourcing.

Business Processing Outsourcing sector is growing very fast in Bangladesh. If Bangladesh want to join the IT revolution, the very first requirement will be a highly skilled and internationally recognized workforce. Without this, no amount of investment in economic growth activities will have a meaningful impact in this country with a population of 135 million, a population density of 900 people per square kilometer, and more than 50 percent of that population under the age of 30. Bangladesh has the potential to not only “staff” domestic growth in the ICT sector as well as others, increasing exports and creating more jobs, but to also create skilled manpower as an export itself. The introduction of a comprehensive, ICT-focused, educational campaign would make it possible for the country to become a source of high value, skilled ICT workers, boosting the remittance levels, and offering opportunities to untold numbers of Bangladeshi citizens. IT directors in all sectors believe that there is a shortage of IT skills and given the local obstacles to traditional industrial development at a level capable of sustaining such a large population, a focus on the development of a skilled, ICT workforce would allow Bangladesh, both at home and abroad, to literally bank on one of its most underutilized resources – its huge population.

2.1.1 Snapshot of the Industry:

Steadily Bangladesh is recognized by the advanced countries for outsourcing of their IT-enabled products. Bangladesh has lots of advantages. Our freelancers are educated and smart. The main advantage of Bangladesh BPO is our hourly charge is relatively low. Bangladeshi BPO companies can provide best service but in a low price. From the last couple of years all developed countries like USA, UK, Canada, Singapore and Australia allocating our local IT specialists for doing their online and offline work. For getting this the foreign companies want to work with Bangladeshi IT experts. This sector has achieved a robust growth of about 150 percent year on year basis for the last two years. More than forty thousand local IT personnel have so far been employed in the sector and income from the sector has reached about US$30 million till March of the current financial year (FY) which was less than thirty thousand and $20 million respectively during the corresponding period of the last FY.

Bangladesh is now competitor for India, Pakistan and some eastern European countries in freelance work, which definitely shows the intelligence and expertise of Bangladeshi IT professionals. Bangladesh. Freelancers earn $15 to $20 per hour on an average for technical work, and $5 to $10 for administrative or non-technical work. Based on information collected from job analysis the company prepares advertisements and publishes them in the newspapers. This is recruitment. A number of applications are received after the advertisement is published, interviews are conducted and the right employee is selected thus recruitment and selection are yet another important area of HRM. New employees must provide the employer with a Social Security number when hired, and it may be needed for applicant background checks, but it is not necessary on the application, and many people concerned with identity theft are reluctant to give Social Security numbers.

- Taskeater follows a flat organizational Hierarchy, each member get to work very closely with their managers. It helps employee to directly learn from the manager.
The employee relationship of Taskeater is very good. There are some loyal employees who are founder employee of the Taskeater and they don't leave.

Every department linkage is very smooth and transparent In Taskeater.

The organization grab the change so easily and make employee comfortable with it.

In Taskeater our dedicated teams and managers try their best to satisfy our clients. Undoubtedly, this is a good practice. But sometimes management does not pay enough attention to employees. I think Employees are as important as clients.

They are more dependent in on the job training. Where few employees want to get off the job training.

The company follow team basis work system but some of employee want to be recognized as individual.

Sometimes management cannot give proper attention to individuals, especially new ones.

5.2 Recommendation & Conclusion:

Taskeater has a 500 plus employee now. The limited resource of company doesn’t allow to practice all the Human Resource Management practice. There can be some solution I think. They are-

Indepedency:

The employee of Taskeater need some more independency in work I think. If the employee allow to do something willingly then some positive changes can be brought in the organization. As the CEO of the company is not always present in this country so some task are stopped for the CEO coming. If the available MD or VP can have the right to do this then the work will be easy.

Salary Structure:

Salary structure of Taskeater is not so much organized. Some employees are want that it should be changed. The fresher are not getting the fare salary. The Taskeater should balance the inconsistency of salary among their department.

Responsibilities:
Taskeater also assigned the management responsibility to the HR. So the HR department remain busy always. That’s why they can’t emphasize on Human Resource Development.

5.3 Recommendations:

In the organization when I talk with the employee I have found the actual problem there. The employee want some solution like given below-

- Better Workplace:

  The Tasketer has their work station in Mirpur 14 CRP Building. The 9th and 10th floor are the taskeater workplace. The building is a commercial building. So the rush for the lift is unbearable. The employees get disturb by standing the line of the lift. As the Taskeater are growing day by day so I think there need a better workplace for the employees.

- More Employee Engagement:

  There are need more employee engagement for the betterment of the organization. It’s difficult to ensure the employee satisfaction without employee engagement. HR leader can develop and implement engagement initiative and management strategies that take into account not only employees’ present perception but also their past and future expectation.

- Proper Performance Appraisal:

  Taskeater use peer evaluation to evaluate their employees. But in this system there can be come some personal issues with one employee to another. As they are working as team so what they think about each other it gets back to the other. Then it’s very easy to identify who thinks what about them. So it can creates the corporate politics in the organization. So I think they should follow the 360 degree performance appraisal system.

- Match Market Compensation Policy:

  The company has an unorganized salary system. They don’t pay enough to the fresher. And the salary structure is not so clear to the employees. The salary cap system is also here. In a certain amount the salary will be cap. It is not fare to some employee. So the salary system should be as the market and it need to be clear to employees.

- Training and Education:
The company follow the on the job training system. But some employee want some off the job training also. As they are giving customize task to the client so it’s needed to give some off the job training who is needed. The company should focus on training and assessment. And the company should give the pressure to employee for their post graduate. They can make a new criteria for promotion to require the post-graduation. That’s how employee will feel the necessity of the further studies.

- Introducing new HR policy:

As in Bangladesh the HR activities are not use properly so being a company of out of the country Taskeater should use the HR policy properly for being an example. The new and updated HR tools need to be used here. The reward system need to be more organized. There need to be more steps should take for the deals with employee turnover. The workforce should be structured.
