

9 UIU students get jobs in Japan

METRO DESK

Nine students of United International University (UIU) have got jobs in Human Resocia Co Ltd, a Japanese firm, through direct recruiting process on the university campus recently.

They are all the students of Computer Science and Engineering Department of UIU.

The CSE department of the university recently organised a seminar titled 'Direct Recruiting Seminar' on its campus for job in Japan where 51 students of the department were interviewed. Oriko Ueda, founder and CEO of a Japanese Company Venturas Ltd, and Vice Chancellor of UIU Prof Dr Chowdhury Mofizur Rahman were present at the seminar.

The Japanese government has recently wanted to ease the country's immigration laws in a bid to attract foreign workers amid a growing labor scarcity.
